'Nails' gets third rivet

OTTAWA (CFP) -- Lt.-Col. Andrew C. Iggulden (Retired), 61, of St. Catharines, Ont., former commanding officer of Ridley College army cadet corps there, sometimes is referred to as "Nails."

And "Nails" recently was awarded his third "rivet" -- or clasp to his Canadian Forces Decoration (CD) -- signifying 42-years' service in the Canadian army and British units in England, India and Southeast Asia.

He's one of a select few Canadians to be so decorated, and it's believed he now is the only living Canadian to have three clasps to his CD.

Lt.-Col. Iggulden received the clasp during his corps' annual inspection at Ridley College, a private boys' school, last month. Brig.-Gen. Joseph L. J. Lefebvre, chief of staff and administration, Mobile Command headquarters, St. Hubert, Que., made the presentation.

"Nails" joined the 10th Field Battery, Royal Canadian Artillery, at St. Catharines on his 18th birthday -- April 21, 1931.

Later, finding no enlistment vacancies in regular army units at Toronto, he hopped a boat for England in 1935, and joined the Royal Artillery as a gunner at Woolwich, Eng.

After a year with the regiment in Britain, he was posted to India, and served in an ordnance depot at Frezepore, an old fort near Lahore.

Subsequent postings sent him to such places as Poonah, site of a 19th-Century Indian mutiny in Northern India, and the town of Agra, location of the Taj Mahal.

At outbreak of war, he was seconded to the Indian Army Ordnance Corps, served in several postings throughout India and Southeast Asia, was captured by the Japanese at Singapore Island's fall in 1941, and spent the next 3½-years in a prisoner-of-war camp.

"After that, when (Lord Louis) Mountbatten, and his fleet, greeted us at Singapore," Lt.-Col. Iggulden said, "I still had 18 months to serve in the British army, because I'd signed on for 12 years.

"So, I returned to India, then was transferred back to England," he said.

He later returned to Canada on 42-days' leave, married, then returned to England to complete the final months of his 12-year hitch.

In 1947, he left the British army as a staff sergeant, returned again to Canada, and began courses at Camp Petawawa, Ont., to become an army cadet officer.

Then, in 1949, he joined Ridley College army cadet corps, as a lieutenant with more than 14-years' war and peacetime service.

And there he stayed, for nearly three decades, rising through ranks from lieutenant to lieutenant-colonel.

He claims one of his hobbies is "people," and "Nails," over the years, has gained some friends in high places.

"Year after year, I keep getting cards and letters from former Ridley graduates, some of whom are high-ranking now in the Forces," he says.

"There are more than 10 who have gone through RMC and have joined either the navy, army or air force.

"And I keep hearing from them from the strangest places," he adds.

Lt.-Col. Iggulden, who has completed nearly 20 summers of training cadets at Camp Ipperwash, Ont., and student militia courses at St. Catharines and Niagara Falls, Ont., has literally followed in his father's footsteps.

"My father did 27 years at Ridley," he says, "and I'm just completing 27 as well."

(more)...

Born in Dudley, Worcestershire, near Birmingham, Eng., in 1915, he came to Canada at age four, and his family settled at Guelph, Ont. Later, they moved to St. Catharines when his father, also of British army background, took over as Ridley cadet corps commanding officer.

"Only thing is," he adds, "I've retired from the service, but I still have to wait until I'm 65 before I can retire from Ridley.

"No problem, though."

Lt.-Col. Iggulden lives at (36 Ambrose St.) St. Catharines, and, along with his "people" hobby, does a bit of gardening, and continues to instruct a variety of subjects to Ridley's 300-plus army cadets.

RE: PLATOON ASSIGNMENTS

1. The following Officers are assigned to the Platoons indicated.

No.	1. Platoon	- Lt. Holmes
"	2 "	- Capt. Sharpe
"	3 "	- Lt. Cosgrove
"	4 "	- Lt. Hollinrake
"	5 "	- Lt. Dorland
"	6 "	- Lt. Mackey
"	7 "	- Lt. Scott
"	8 "	- Lt. Lewis

2. The above Officers will assist the Platoon Lieutenants in a 15 minute drill period which will commence at 6:45, to be followed by Battalion ceremonial drill. (Tues. 3 May)

3. Please stress the following:

a) "Present arms, slope and order arms".
b) "Eyes right" (marker looks straight to the front)
c) "Open order march" (centre rank remains fast, front and rear ranks take three full paces)
d) "Right dress" (everyone takes one pace forward, turn head and eyes to the right, line up on the marker and remain that way until the "eyes front")
e) Right and left turns on the march. (Command is given on the foot which indicates the direction of the turn)
f) "Halt" (command given on the right foot, take one check pace with the left and come the position of attention with the right foot. There should be no movement, even if you are out of line)
g) "About turn" (always to the right)
h) Officers and N.C.O.'s should give commands in loud, crisp and clear voices. The cautionary and executive commands should be separated by two paces when given on the march.
e.g. i) Platoon (pace, pace) Halt!
ii) Eyes (pace, pace) Right!
The emphasis always being on the executive command.

4. Please take down the names of those cadets who should have extra drill and turn them in to me.

5. Your help and co-operation is very much appreciated.

Dear Norman,

I was embarrassed that your letter to me arrived before I had written my letter to you! I wanted to thank you most sincerely, on behalf of all of us at Ridley, for a very fine day's work! We were very glad to have you here; and you gave a great boost to the Cadet Programme, not only by your presence but also by the things you said.

Mary and I really enjoyed your visit. It was delightful to get to know you; and we were only sad that your wife could not be with you. I hope you arrived in Toronto in time for that sad family occasion, and that everything went as well as it could on such an occasion.

We hope very much that you will come back and see us at Ridley. Do please bring your wife, and thank you once more for your many kindnesses of that day. With all good wishes,

Yours ever,

MAY 24 1977

Dear Richard:

I very much enjoyed my return to Ridley after so many years and to see so much of what I remembered about the College, and yet to find the many additions and improvements that have greatly enhanced it.

I do wish to thank you and Mary for your warm hospitality and for all you did to make me feel very much at home. Also, my thanks to the members of your staff who assisted me and were responsible for making the Annual Inspection a most successful day and a very memorable one for me.

I look forward to my next visit which I hope will not be too far in the future and in which Marion will join me.

Best regards

Yours

REMARKS – COMMENTAIRES

PERSONNEL & ORGANIZATION – PERSONNEL & ORGANISATION

#162 is a Private College. Uniforms are only worn for the Annual Inspection.

Long hair is evident.

Cdt Offrs and Sr NCO's are keen and show leadership abilities.

Offrs dressed in civilian clothes or work dress.

ADMINISTRATION

The Administration of the Corps is good. File system is up to date but requires ACCRO fasteners and must be changed to 1085, File Index and cross-index is an excellent idea.

Routine Orders are up to date. All cadets have CF1049 made out (excellent).

A Sn NCO does a lot of work assisting the CO in the completion of Adm requirements.

A Mail Register must be started.

AA

SUPPLY – APPROVISIONNEMENT

There are no problems in this area.

CO returns U/S equipment.

There is not a Corps Key Register but the Corps used the school Key Register.

Because of the large number of cadets, uniforms are issued on a Temporary Issue Card for easier control and Adm.

Corps should order boots for cadets.

AA

TRAINING & ACTIVITIES – INSTRUCTIONS & ACTIVITÉS

Corps has promulgated a Yearly Trg Syllabus and Timetable. Each year Corps brings in more and more Star Level Subjects.

Corps participates in DCRA Indoor Shooting Program and has entered Band Competition.

Much of the trg is conducted outdoors.

ACO'S OR SCLO'S REMARKS – REMARQUES DE L'OFFICIER DES CADETS DU SECTEUR OU DE L'OFFICIER DE LIAISON SENIOR DES CADETS

Much improvement has been observed at this Corps. The Officers and Sr Cadets are dedicated to the Corps. The dedication and hard work has a positive influence on the Junior Cadets.

The CO has decided to impliment as much of the Star Level of training as possible for next year. The ACO will assist him.

The CO should determine how many cadets are interested in either employment at Summer Camps or attending Summer Camps.

OFFICIER DES CADETS DU SECTEUR: Remarques générales sur l'entraînement, l'administration, l'approvisionnement et les progrès de l'unité.

Training. This Corps has an active training programme. The Star Programme is not completely implemented as a D of E programme is used. Many of the subjects taught have a military background though.

Administration. The Corps has been working all year on the enrolling of cadets as required by regulations. Points brought out by the ACI have been actioned. More work is required.

Supply. The Corps holds few items belonging to DND on their DA. Those items belonging to DND and the School are well maintained and controlled.

Unit Progress. The Corps is working hard to bring in the various regulations as laid down by DND.

Annual Inspection. The Annual Inspection was a success. It was obvious that a lot of preparation was done for it. The drill, dress and deportment of the cadets was good. The whole programme was well organized with no delays or holdups.

5. REGION HQ: Remarks
OG DE LA RÉGION: Remarques

The officers of Ridley College Cadet Corps have evidently worked hard to apply DND standards, and the report indicates an improvement in many areas during training year 75/76. Major Rose and his officers are to be congratulated for offering an attractive variety of activities to challenge the cadets. More consideration should be given to the Star program, which is designed as a system of progression by levels.

Keep up the good work in training year 76/77, and give some consideration to entering the First Aid, Rifle Shooting, Drill and Band Competitions announced from time to time in Central Region Cadet Supplementary Orders.

2. COMMANDING OFFICERS REMARKS – REMARQUES DU COMMANDANT

The Corps has continued to increase its involvement in expedition training and related exercises. This year, in addition to the usual expeditions, a survival course has been initiated with hopes of expansion next year. The winter survival phase this year met with great success both in the lecture room and in the field.

The rifle range has also been more active and a rifle team is in the process of being built which we hope will come to fruition next year. This year has also seen the formation of a more active drill team and communications section.

Ten cadets received their Bronze Medallion from the Royal Life Saving Society and are to be commended for the many hours of extra work needed for this award. (Cont'd. on page 2 attached)

3. SPONSORS REMARKS – REMARQUES DU RÉPONDANT

As a result of an increased involvement by staff members, we have been able to diversify the cadet training programme in a number of ways. I continue to be impressed by the readiness of the students to derive benefit from this programme, and by the excellent work of the officers, and of our part-time visitors and instructors.

4. INSPECTING OFFICERS REMARKS – REMARQUES DE L'OFFICIER INSPECTEUR

This is certainly the best Cadet Corps that I have had the opportunity to inspect. Their drill and dress were impeccable.

The responsible personnel are to be congratulated and Ridley College has good reason to be proud.

Junior and Senior classes were also offered for those wishing to qualify for St. John's Ambulance certificates in first aid.
Scuba formed an extra-curricular activity this year and ten cadets have undergone instruction in both the pool and inland lakes.
The band has completed its transition from drum and trumpet to include a much wider variety of instruments. We hope that in two or three years the band will have matured to the point where it can successfully compete with the more sophisticated military and show bands in the area.
The hockey team was invited to R.M.C. where the boys not only played well on the ice but were a credit to the school and the corps. The cadets were most impressed by R.M.C. and the possibilities it may afford in their own post-secondary education. We hope this relationship with R.M.C. will continue.
The Duke of Edinburgh programme continues within the framework of the Cadet Corps and provides additional avenues of expression such as Animal Care, Hobbies, Police Services, Social Work and Citizenship.

In general, the esprit de corps has been good, the esprit fort of the officers has been outstanding, and both male and female cadets have responded to the variety of opportunities which are being offered by the Cadet Programme.

We would also like to go on record in thanking the Area Cadet Staff for their co-operation and assistance over the past year.

Dear Norm,

Thank you very much for your letter of 13 January. It is good news to hear that you will accept our invitation to be the inspecting officer for our annual cadet inspection.

The date that has been set for the inspection is Friday the 13th May. I hope this date will not deter your willingness to be with us.

Our Chief instructor of the Corps, Major E. Jack Rose, will be in touch with you a little later on, giving you the times and details of the inspection.

Thank you again, Norm, we will be looking forward to your visit.

Yours sincerely,

RIDLEY COLLEGE

October 27, 1976

CADET TRAINING PROGRAMME: 1976/77

1. Ridley College continues to maintain a Cadet Programme, being recognized as a unit of the Canadian Army Cadet Force. It also maintains an affiliation to the Duke of Edinburgh Award Scheme.

The educational objectives of this programme are as follows:

(a) To inculcate a sense of service, culminating in the ceremonial exercises of the Cadet Inspection.

(b) To provide opportunities for training in various forms of good citizenship.

(c) To encourage initiative and leadership.

2. The Cadet Training Year. This falls into three parts, and they can be defined as follows:

(a) Fall Training. This covers the period up to the Thanksgiving Weekend. Basic drill training will be given during this time to recruits. Documentation of all members of the Upper School will be completed. Briefing for the Winter Training, and the selection of options will be completed by Thanksgiving.

(b) Winter Training. This occupies the greater part of the school year, from Thanksgiving Weekend to the end of the Winter Term. There are approximately fourteen Mondays in this period, seven falling either side of Christmas. Courses, as outlined below, will either be fourteen-week courses (referred to as type A), or seven-week courses (referred to as type B). These courses will be available to students in Grades 11, 12 and 13.

A basic programme (outlined below) will be given to all Grade 10 students. Upper School Grade 9 students will be included in this Basic Training Course, but may proceed when they reach Grade 10 to the Type A and Type B courses.

(c) Spring Training. This lasts from April until the Cadet Parade. It is concerned with the preparation of the Cadet Parade Ceremonial, and the Demonstrations given at that time.

3. Basic Training Programme for Grades 9 and 10 (October to March). During this period, the Recruits (divided into four platoons) will complete a basic training programme of fourteen parades as follows:

(a) Basic First Aid (seven weeks).
(b) Basic Campcraft Skills (three to six weeks).
(c) Weapons Safety and Range Firing (two weeks).
(d) Police Lectures (two weeks).

Students are strongly encouraged to attempt their Bronze Award in the Duke of Edinburgh Award Scheme during this Basic Year.

4. Advanced Training (October to March).
It is mandatory for all students in Grades 11, 12 and 13 to register in either one Type A course or two Type B courses during this time.

(a) Type A Courses (fourteen weeks) October 18 - March 7:

i) Standard First Aid - taught by St. John's Ambulance. There are regional and local competitions which may be entered if desirable.
ii) Royal Life Saving - Instruction to Bronze Medallion Level. Involves hard work and some extra time towards the end of the course. Student instructors are used.
iii) Driver Training - Instruction held on Fridays with lessons as scheduled.
iv) Wood Technology - Taught by the Industrial Arts teacher of Ferndale Public School. Each student selects a project and works on it with the instructor. This course begins at 6:30 p.m. and may run to 9:30 or 10:00 p.m.
v) Rifle Team - Made up of three teams or two teams plus spares. These are boys who wish to fire on a competitive basis rather than for simple recreation. The instructor meets with these boys on nights when they are mutually available. The best shots may advance to regional competition and possible Provincial competition. We are required to enter a DCRA competition. No dates have been set by DCRA. Housemasters will be advised of dates and names of boys as soon as the dates are announced and the teams have been selected.
vi) Band - The Band, as a unit, begins practice after Christmas. It is therefore possible for a Band member to participate in other programmes offered, especially in the first half of the year.

(b) Type B Courses (seven weeks) October 18 - January 10:

i) Communications - Basic communications, Morse, operation of C42 transmitter and receiver sets, radio procedure. The radio equipment will be set up in the renovated part of the pest house.
ii) Expeditions - A basic catch-up course for those seniors who do not have sufficient background in expeditions to attempt winter training.

.....3

iii) Drill Team - A unit of boys from 10 through 13 who wish to learn precision drill. This is an extra for Grade 10 and does not interfere with their compulsory training. The drill team will represent the school when formal military occasions demand it, and will form No. 1 Platoon at the Inspection.

iv) Theory of Flight, Meteorology - A basic course for those interested in flying. It will assist persons attempting ground school instructions and examinations by the Ministry of Transport.

January 17 - March 7:

i) Communications - For those who wish to go beyond the basics, and who wish to try for their radio license. These boys may ask permission to work with the radios on nights other than Mondays. It could become an involved hobby for some.

ii) Expeditions - For those who have completed the pre-requisite training. Survival training in winter and spring conditions. Will involve at least one weekend trip per student.

iii) Drill Team - As in 1st half of year. Will require more precision at attention to detail, giving as well as receiving commands, and preparation for demonstrations at Annual Inspection.

iv) SAS FNCI - Instruction range safety and the use of small arms. Firing on the Ridley range. Instruction in the use of the FNCI Standard NATO weapon and the firing of this weapon at the outdoor range at Niagara-on-the-Lake.

v) Navigation - The 2nd half of the instruction for budding pilots. Deals primarily with air navigation.

5. Student Instructors. Some senior students will be required to assist in this Training Programme as instructors. Students with particular skills, and with the wish to instruct, should give their names and details to the Commanding Officer. Other students may be approached, with the request that they act as instructors.

6. Times. Training will take place on Mondays with the following exceptions:

Driver Training (Fridays)
Rifle Team (selected weekdays)
Emergency First Aid (Tuesdays)

Times and locations are posted each week on Part I orders and are distributed to Housemasters.

CADET TRAINING PROGRAMME: 1976/77

1. Ridley College continues to maintain a Cadet Programme, being recognized as a unit of the Canadian Army Cadet Force. It also maintains an affiliation to the Duke of Edinburgh Award Scheme.

The educational objectives of this programme are as follows:

(a) To inculcate a sense of service, culminating in the ceremonial exercises of the Cadet Inspection.

(b) To provide opportunities for training in various forms of good citizenship.

(c) To encourage initiative and leadership.

2. The Cadet Training Year. This falls into three parts, and they can be defined as follows:

(a) Fall Training. This covers the period up to the Thanksgiving Weekend. Basic drill training will be given during this time to recruits. Documentation of all members of the Upper School will be completed. Briefing for the Winter Training, and the selection of options will be completed by Thanksgiving.

(b) Winter Training. This occupies the greater part of the school year, from Thanksgiving Weekend to the end of the Winter Term. There are approximately fourteen Mondays in this period, seven falling either side of Christmas. Courses, as outlined below, will either be fourteen-week courses (referred to as type A), or seven-week courses (referred to as type B). These courses will be available to students in Grades 11, 12 and 13.

A basic programme (outlined below) will be given to all Grade 10 students. Upper School Grade 9 students will be included in this Basic Training Course, but may proceed when they reach Grade 10 to the Type A and Type B courses.

(c) Spring Training. This lasts from April until the Cadet Parade. It is concerned with the preparation of the Cadet Parade Ceremonial, and the Demonstrations given at that time.

3. Basic Training Programme for Grades 9 and 10 (October to March). During this period, the Recruits (divided into four platoons) will complete a basic training programme of fourteen parades as follows:

(a) Basic First Aid (seven weeks).
(b) Basic Campcraft Skills (three to six weeks).
(c) Weapons Safety and Range Firing (two weeks).
(d) Police Lectures (two weeks).

Students are strongly encouraged to attempt their Bronze Award in the Duke of Edinburgh Award Scheme during this Basic Year.

4. Advanced Training (October to March).
It is mandatory for all students in Grades 11, 12 and 13 to register in either one Type A course or two Type B courses during this time.

(a) Type A Courses (fourteen weeks) October 18 - March 7:

M.R.C. (for information)

I have attempted here to set out both the philosophy and the broad organizational plan for the coming year. If it is seen to be both practical and desirable, there are details that have to be worked out:

(a) The allocation of responsibility to individual officers for courses.

(b) The timing of each activity.

(c) The optimum and minimum numbers required for courses.

(d) The manner in which this programme will be presented to the student body.

(e) The recruitment of student instructors in both the Basic and Advanced Training Programmes.

I have consciously omitted Scuba Diving, Karate and Photography from this list. If we feel that an individual or small group is sustaining a valuable activity, outside this Training Programme, for which we wish to give them an increased time opportunity, I think we should reserve the initiative to offer them this opportunity. But I have purposely not encouraged student requests for individual programmes.

I shall speak of our general intentions on this Friday morning to the faculty, and suggest that we have a meeting as soon afterwards as possible to finalize arrangements.

(c) Spring Training. This lasts from April until the Cadet Parade. It is concerned with the preparation of the Cadet Parade Ceremonial, and the Demonstrations given at that time.

3. Basic Training Programme for Grades 9 and 10 (October to March). During this period, the Recruits (divided into four platoons) will complete a basic training programme of fourteen parades as follows:

(a) Basic First Aid (seven weeks).
(b) Basic Campcraft Skills (three weeks).
(c) Weapons Safety and Range Firing (two weeks).
(d) Police Lectures (two weeks).

Students are strongly encouraged to attempt their Bronze Award in the Duke of Edinburgh Award Scheme during this Basic Year.

4. Advanced Training (October to March).
It is mandatory for all students in Grades 11, 12 and 13 to register in either one Type A course or two Type B courses during this time.

(a) Type A courses (lasting fourteen weeks):

Standard First Aid
Lifesaving
Driver Training
Woodwork Skills

(b) Type B courses (lasting seven weeks) October to December:

Radio Communication
Drill Squad (there will be an opportunity to take part in one or two ceremonial parades before Christmas)
Meteorology and Theory of Flight

January to March:

Cadet Band
Advanced Expedition Training (including a Winter Expedition)
Navigation

Note: If a minimum of students does not opt for one of these courses, the course may be withdrawn from the training programme.

5. Student Instructors. Some senior students will be required to assist in this Training Programme as instructors. Students with particular skills, and with the wish to instruct, should give their names and details to the Commanding Officer. Other students may be approached, with the request that they act as instructors.

6. Parade Times. So far as possible, all training will take place on Monday evenings. But it may not be possible to organize all courses for that time. If a course occurs at another time in the week, attendance at that time is mandatory. But the students involved in that activity are not required to parade on Monday evenings.

It is our hope that this revised programme will provide valuable and interesting opportunities for members of the student body.

Have we adopted any policy concerning this fund-raising drive? I think our situation is really a little different from the normal cadet unit, and I doubt whether we are under an obligation to support it. What do you think?

Your League will be running a Horse Lottery at the Royal Winter Fair in Toronto from November 12th through to the 20th. The prize is a riding horse complete with tack, riding lessons and a year's board. The tickets will sell for one dollar each.

The Lottery is part of our program to attract public attention to the Army Cadet Movement and to give evidence of self-reliance and industry in our public campaign for funds.

Advertising posters are enclosed and we are asking that you arrange their display where corps are active.

Tickets are now on sale and efforts are being made to promote their sale through service organizations and other interested groups across the Province.

The 1976 Lottery is being introduced as a "Test Program" and consequently is not being offered as a shared venture to individual corps as an adjunct to their own fund-raising. Next year, if our lottery achieves a good success, we intend to invite the corps to participate directly if they feel it would be profitable and complimentary to their established funding programs.

However, because it is an Army Cadet League project, we will make tickets available to those Corps who wish to purchase them.*

The Horse Lottery is one of a number of projects being planned as we begin structuring our major fund-raising program.

In the weeks ahead, we will keep you abreast of our progress and will welcome your advice to ensure the success of the campaign.

Yours truly,

J. G. Wasteneys

Cadet Meeting:

Staff Room, Thursday, September 16th, 8:00 p.m.

1. We are one of the few schools which has maintained a mandatory Cadet Programme until this time. We have done so partly by our attempts to identify the Cadet Training with the opportunity of Duke of Edinburgh Award qualifications. We have also done so because of the continuing support of the Student Body for the Cadet Parade and the military formalities. I personally am very glad that we have been able to maintain this traditional aspect of the school's activities.

2. Assuming that we continue to have the support of the Student Body in ceremonial and drill, I think we should satisfy ourselves that the general training programme justifies the time which is given to it during the school year. This is only possible as a result of the generous contribution of time and service by members of the staff.

3. The purposes of our meeting on Thursday will be as follows:

(a) To consider the compatibility of the Cadet Programme and the Duke of Edinburgh Award Training Programme.

(b) To evaluate the student support for the Duke of Edinburgh Award Programme.

(c) To define and identify those activities which can properly be described as Cadet/Duke of Edinburgh Training.

(d) To confirm the supervision and leadership necessary for these courses.

(e) To consider whether it is appropriate for these activities to take place on other evenings than Monday.

(f) To decide how we may promote desirable activities, in addition to Cadet time, especially expeditions.

4. Having formulated possible changes in the Cadet Programme, I think it is important that we should consider these changes in the light of the balance of school activities and submit to the rest of the faculty.

Dear Rodger,

Further to our recent telephone conversation concerning use of shop facilities at Ferndale Public School, we would like to seek formal permission to use these facilities at this time.

Ridley College is engaged in a programme known as the Duke of Edinburgh's Award Scheme, which at Ridley falls under the umbrella of Cadet activities. Woodworking is one of the possibilities of the D. of E. programme and is also an area where we feel the school is not providing a creative outlet.

Mr. John Sitak of Ferndale is willing to oversee this project on our behalf and we are certainly anxious to provide this opportunity for a group of about 16 boys on Monday nights.

Your assistance in this matter is certainly appreciated.

Yours sincerely,

E. John Rose, Major

Dear Mrs. Leyshon-Hughes,

I must apologize for my long delay in following up our correspondence of July, concerning the Van der Smissen Trust.

Under the terms of entry into the Royal Military College, and other service training colleges, modern circumstances make the awarding of a scholarship of this kind no longer decisive in a young man's decision. As it happens, we have also been passing through a period when we have not had candidates who could qualify for this award.

I am wondering whether the trust deed might be reviewed, with a view to making the application of the award more relevant to modern circumstances. We have a continuing and vigorous Cadet Force at Ridley College. I can see two or three possibilities of individual assistance, which might sustain the spirit of the award and be more relevant to modern needs.

Briefly, my thoughts are these:

1. Perhaps the award could be used to encourage an enterprising young man who wishes to embark on some kind of Outward Bound experience, arising out of our Cadet expedition training.

2. Perhaps it could be used as an award to a student who gives outstanding service to the Cadet Force, so long as it is used for some special purpose that would tie in with general citizenship training.

3. Perhaps it could be used to enhance the equipment, currently possessed by the school, for the furtherance of Expedition and Outward Bound training.

I should be glad to discuss possibilities with you, if you feel any of these suggestions could be justified in terms of the Trust Deed. But I appreciate that Trustees are closely bound by the original citation.

With all good wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Jack,

1. We have not had many candidates lately for this!

2. If we had, the grant might not have been of great relevance to them, in view of the present terms of admission to RMC, Kingston, etc.

3. Is there any way that we can redefine this financial assistance, so that it might of help to our students? I am thinking here of the possibility of offering an annual scholarship to somebody who wishes to attend an Outward Bound course in Canada, or something of that sort, under service auspices.

Before I write back, can I have your advice?

Dear Sir

Van der Smissen Trust Re Ridley College
Victor Van der Smissen Scholarship

As you are aware, the above Trust sets out the terms of the Victor Van der Smissen Scholarhsip which authorizes $70.00 to be paid at the beginning and upon completion of the first year to a student entering a service college from Ridley College. This scholarship is at the discretion of the Head Master.

In June 1976, we capitalized income of $438.25. Perhaps rather than capitalizing the income in the coming year, you would consider paying the scholarship to a suitable candidate. If you wish to do this, perhaps you would inform me of the name of the recipient so that the necessary arrangements may be made.

Yours very truly

Dear Peter,

I must apologize for not replying before to your letter of the 1st of September.

First, we have made a note of the date of Sunday, May the 1st, for our Cadet Parade Service. I should be glad to give the address on that occasion.

I hope the arrangements are all clear for the service at the end of October. I had a slight anxiety that there was a misunderstanding about the attendance of the school. For a communion service, as it is to be sung by the choir, our feeling was that the presence of the whole school was not really appropriate. However, I did suggest to Jack Rose that we might give senior boys the option of coming to St. Thomas' or coming to the Chapel that morning. Would you like us to do this?

With all good wishes,

Yours ever,

RAB

Jack,

I think these basic arrangements sound okay. I am a little concerned that Peter may be expecting the whole school on October the 31st. Are we quite sure there is no confusion over this?

R.A.B.

(1) May 15th is OK and noted.

(2) I think you are correct about the confusion on the 31st. I'll deal with it right away

Dear Dick:

It may seem a little soon to be talking about next year's Cadet Corps Parade Service, but as 1977 is our Centennial Year and I want to get a Calendar of Events published before the end of this year, I am writing to ask if Sunday, May 1st, would be an appropriate day for the Ridley Parade; and also to ask you to deliver the sermon on that occasion. In order to highlight the connection between Ridley and St. Thomas', I think it would be most appropriate to have the Headmaster speak to us then.

I would also like to set the date for another visit of the Ridley community in the Fall of 1977 and would suggest October 30th, if that is satisfactory with you. That could be a Service similar to the one we are planning this year on October 31st.

I hope you've had a pleasant and refreshing summer and I look forward to hearing from you before too long. With every good wish,

Yours sincerely,

Peter
